announces a new program

COUPLES
PSYCHOTHERAPY TRAINING PROGRAM

WCSP is pleased to offer a one-year course of study which focuses on the theory and practice of couples treatment. The courses will integrate contemporary psychoanalytic thinking with systems theory from a clinical perspective. There will be one course per trimester. The curriculum is: Introduction to Couples Treatment; Beginning the Couples Therapy – Looking Through the Dual Lens of the Intrapsychic and the Systemic; and Special Topics. Classes will be held Tuesday evenings at Wainwright House in Rye, NY. Please call for further information.

FILM SERIES

The Film Committee of the Child and Adolescent Training Program of WCSP invites you to our next film:

Romulus, My Father

Friday, March 12, 2010 at 7 PM

260 Stuyvesant Avenue, Rye, NY

This film, an autobiography, tells the story of a young boy, his father, and the sorrows of their life as they seek to survive their profound attachment to a mother/wife who is incapable of healthy attachment. It is a beautifully wrought tribute to the resilience of certain children even in the face of profound tragedy and significant parental pathology. It is also a testament to the power of art as an aspect of repair.

Following the film, there will be a discussion led by Kenneth Barish, PhD and Steven Spitz, PhD. Wine and cheese will be served. There is no charge for the evening. Please RSVP to Jane Bloomgarden at jwillbloom@gmail.com or 914-472-8180.
